RAILROAD NEWS ITEMS.

Four engineers are testing 15 days by request. And there are others.

The pay car unloaded its welcome dollars at this station, Wednesday night.

General Supt. Calvert spent last Friday here on business of the company.

Trainmaster Kenyon was down on the Sunflower line, Saturday, with the pay car.

Conductor C. W. Browson took in the Shriners meeting in Lincoln, Saturday last.

Trainmaster Webb Joselyn and daughter were up from Orleans, Saturday evening last.

Henry Smith is the temporary round house foreman vice Thomas Crabtree, discharged.

Emerson Hanson returned, first of the week, from his absence in Illinois visiting the family.

Mrs. James Chambers arrived from Newcastle, Wyoming, first of the week, and is visiting relatives in this place.

Tom McCarl got one of his feet painfully squeezed in the turn-table at Imperial, Wednesday. Jim Patten-on is also suffering with an injured foot.

William McCarl and bride returned, last Friday morning, from their wedding trip to Iowa. They are occupying comfortable quarters over McAdams' store.

Chief Clerk Harris of Supt. Campbell's office, went over the Cheyenne line, Saturday, spending Sunday in Cheyenne, and returning home on Monday night.

Mrs. B. J. Sharkey and James Murphy accompanied Mrs. Luke Tulley to Omaha, Sunday night, where Mrs. Tulley will undergo treatment for her failing eyesight.

Thomas Crabtree spent Sunday in Denver on a business visit connected with his patent packing. It is said that he disposed of the right to use the same to the Santa Fe company for the sum of $5,000.

Mrs. Oscar Yarger arrived from Orleans, Monday evening, and is visiting her parents-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Yarger, while her husband, who has been transferred to Heartwell and made station agent at that place, is preparing for her removal to their new home.

Western lines still have under consideration the proposition to stop all advertising except in publications of regular and frequent issues, like newspapers. Though the lines as a whole refused to adopt the measure when it was last considered, and it failed to become effective because unanimous vote is necessary, the chairman and a committee were instructed to canvass the situation for the purpose of ascertaining how many lines would go into the plan. If a sufficient number will do so a side agreement will be made.

BLAMED THE ENGINEER—They tell a good one on a Norwegian of Marshall, Montana. He did not speak our language very plain and consequently had many misfortunes. He went into the depot to get a ticket to Osage, Minnesota, which is situated in the northern part of the state. He said to the ticket agent: "Ay gas ma gat teckit for one Osawage".

The ticket agent fixed him out for Oswego, New York. Now he had calculated on returning home in three days, but having a ticket for Oswego, New York, he was duly landed there. He was in search of relatives and of course could not find them. In about five weeks he returned to Marshall. His relatives were somewhat alarmed at his staying away and asked the reason of his delay.

About Lenno Hoge's Death.

A friend of the Hoge family hands us the following concerning Lenno's death: Miss Lenno Hoge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Hoge, died at the residence of her parents, 1362 South 15th street, Denver, on Wednesday evening, Nov. 11th. She had been suffering for the past three months from acute rheumatism. Although her illness was severe, death came unexpectedly, as recently there had been an improvement which encouraged her family and friends and it was hoped that she would soon have been able to travel south to Holly Springs, Miss., there to spend the winter for her health.

A simple but impressive and touching funeral service was conducted at her late home by the Rev. Charles Marshall of the Episcopal church. The interment is to take place in Fairmount cemetery of Denver, where the remains have been temporarily laid in a vault.

In the passing away of Miss Lenno Hoge, Denver loses a young lady of high culture and exalted character. She was born at Kearney, Neb., and had reached the age of nineteen. Her early education was received at St. Joseph Academy of St. Joseph, Mo. From there she went to East Oakland, Cal., where she completed her studies at the Lourdes Academy.

The St. Louis Globe-Democrat—Semi-Weekly—Tuesday and Friday—Eight pages each issue—Sixteen pages every week—only one dollar a year, is unquestionably the biggest, best and cheapest national news journal published in the United States. Strictly Republican in politics, it still gives all the news, and gives it at least three days earlier than it can be had from any weekly paper published anywhere. It is indispensable to the farmer, merchant or professional man who desires to keep promptly and thoroughly posted, but has not the time to read a large daily paper; while its great variety of well selected reading matter makes it invaluable as a home and family paper. Remember the price, only one dollar a year. Sample copies free. Address, GLOBE PRINTING CO., St. Louis, Mo.
